

CABTC Excellent/Master Scent Work Seminar

John Strassner, Ph.D.

October 20 and 21, 2026

Delve into the Science of Scent

Cleveland All-Breed Training Club is pleased to host Dr. John Strassner's excellent/master two-day scent seminar on Tuesday, October 20 and Wednesday, October 21, 2026.

John is an NACSW CNWI, an AKC Expert Judge, and an ex AKC Scent Work Field Rep. He has been competing since 2015 and teaching since early 2019. A tenured professor in artificial intelligence and computer science, John is a natural teacher and knows how to make the learning fun.

Join us to:

- ▶ Learn about the science of how odor moves and travels

- ▶ Know when your dog is in odor vs. engaged in something else
- ▶ Problem-solve as a team
- ▶ Set hides that test specific skills
- ▶ Use body positioning and handling to your advantage
- ▶ Assess challenges of the search area such as environmental factors and time limit

What: 12 Working Spots; 15 Audit Spots

When: October 20 and 21, 2026

Where: Brooklyn Heights Community Center,
225 Tuxedo Ave, Brooklyn Hts. Ohio
Crating in Car Only **

Electronic signup only at www.CABTC.org